

Experience, Reliability, Performance

TJ Electrical
LIGHTING & POWER

TJ Electrical
SITE WELFARE

TJ Electrical
TURNSTILE ACCESS

TJ Electrical
CCTV & DATA

TJ Electrical
CONTRACTORS

T J Electrical specialise in temporary electrical and mechanical installations to the construction industry and provide permanent electrical services to the domestic and commercial trade

Temporary Lighting & Power

Every area that is used on your construction should be well-lit, either with natural lighting or non-natural lighting. Here at TJ Electrical we can provide you with all your lighting needs.

Essential Site Welfare Facilities

T J Electrical provides temporary water and waste supplies to site Accommodation and Welfare facilities nationwide. Having running water and means of waste disposal is essential.

Temporary Site Safety & Security

Site security is essential requirement for construction sites, we provide effective and convenient ways of securing and restricting access to your site.

CCTV and Data Installation

With an ever-changing world of technology, T J Electrical is always on the lookout for the latest CCTV and software to install on both domestic and construction sites.

Electrical Contractors

Our highly professional team deliver domestic and commercial electrical services for buildings throughout the East of England, Midlands, South East and Greater London.

About us

Electrical contractors to commercial and domestic projects

Established since 1984, T J Electrical offers a wealth of experience when it comes to temporary and permanent services in the construction, domestic and commercial industry. Our “can do” attitude has seen us provide quality solutions to our clients’ requirements, being the first choice for our clients. We aim to deliver the highest quality performance from initial design guidance to installation services and ongoing maintenance.

We carry out work to construction and development sites nationwide from South East and Greater London through to East of England and the Midlands. Please take a look at our testimonials page on our website to see what some of clients have to say.

T J Electrical comes fully equipped with a huge substantial amount of plant and equipment, which is all maintained and prepared in our large well-equipped workshop based in Peterborough, Cambridgeshire. This meaning our extensive team of field engineers come fully loaded with all the necessary tools and test equipment, ensuring our installations are installed in perfect working order and throughout your project.

If you are looking for quality, reliable electrical specialists look no further and contact us.

T J Electrical can help your company by providing essential services to your project which include:

- Comprehensive Design and Planning
- Ongoing project maintenance and support
- Rapid call out response
- Installation of Temporary Power including generator hire and fuel management
- Installation of 110v Temporary Lighting and Power
- Equipment Hire
- Electrical Site Safety Testing and Certification
- Temporary Welfare Solutions
- Temporary Water and Waste Solutions
- Turnstile Access Control
- CCTV and Data installation
- Wireless Site Evacuation Systems
- Fire Alarms and Security Systems
- Domestic and Commercial Electricians
- Periodic and Landlord Safety Certificates
- PAT testing

CHAS and NICEIC approved

Established since 1984, T J Electrical offers a wealth of experience when it comes to temporary and permanent services in the construction, domestic and commercial industry. Our “can do” attitude has seen us provide quality solutions to our clients’ requirements, being the first choice for our clients. We aim to deliver the highest quality performance from initial design guidance to installation services and ongoing maintenance.

We carry out work to construction and development sites nationwide from South East and Greater London through to East of England and the Midlands. Please take a look at our testimonials page and see what some of clients have to say. (Link to testimonials)

